ROME FILM FEST

OCTOBER 16/27 2024

Beatrice Tura

The 19th edition of Festa del Cinema, Rome's annual famed film festival, kicks off on October 16 until October 27.

The main event takes place at Auditorium Parco della Musica, adorned for the occasion with an infinite red carpet, but the Festa also spreads to other evocative locations in the capital, like MAXXI and Casa del Cinema.

and most beloved actors in Italian and international cinema, marking the centenary of his birth. Viggo Mortensen and Johnny Depp will receive the Lifetime Achievement Award. Mortensen will present his new film, The Dead Don't Hurt, which he wrote, directed, and stars in. Johnny Depp, on the other hand, will present Modi – Three Days on the Wings of Madness to the public, his second directorial work.

The international competition Progressive Cinema— Visioni per il Mondo di Domani is judged by experts in cinema, culture, and the arts, who give awards like Best Film, Best Director, Best Actress and Actor and more. There are also some non-competitive sections: Freestyle, Grand Public, Special Screenings, Best of 2024, and History of Cinema.

The festival will also present the cross-category Best First Feature Award, selected by a separate jury from titles in the Progressive Cinema, Freestyle, and Grand Public sections.

As always, the audience will play a key role in the festival, awarding the FS Audience Award, chosen from the films in the Progressive Cinema Competition. In the programme there are also two sections dedicated to encounters with the audience: Paso Doble, where two authors engage in a dialogue, and Absolute Beginners, a renowned filmmaker reflects on their debut in the industry. The pre-opening event of the Rome Film Festival and Alice nella Città 2024 will take place on Monday, October 14, at the iconic Cinecittà Studios, hosting the Italian premiere of Megalopolis, the latest work from legendary director Francis Ford Coppola, known for masterpieces such as The Godfather trilogy, Apocalypse Now, and Bram Stoker's Dracula.

The Rome Film Festival promises to be a memorable experience for film enthusiasts, those in search of enriching cultural experiences, and those lucky passers-by visiting Rome in mid-October. Don't miss out on this important artistic journey!

Aromazzata is a unique event blending art, culture, and culinary delights. Inspired by the Italian word for “flavored,” Aromazzata is a feast for lovers of art and food. Aromazzata offers a rich mix of engaging talks led by experts on Rome’s vibrant artistic heritage and the irresistible world of Italian cuisine. To enhance your experience, Aromazzata also provides a complimentary reservation service for some of Rome’s best restaurants, so you can enjoy your time in the city without the hassle of securing dining spots.

OTTOBRATA MONTICIANA

TRADITION

11- 13 October

Monti neighborhood
ottobratamonticiana.com

The Ottobrata Monticiana returns to liven up the Monti neighborhood: three days filled with events, exhibitions, shows, and concerts to rekindle the cheerful and carefree spirit of the Romans who once participated in the famous roman “Ottobrate”. These were traditional Sunday trips outside the city that took place in the month of October, coinciding with the beautiful sunny days and the grape harvest. The Ottobrata Monticiana resurrects this custom, inviting all to partake in the festivities: old and new Monticians, tourists and visitors.

Tevere Day returns with a program packed with activities for both adults and children. Over 120 events will take place along approximately 80 kilometres of the Tiber's banks, with key spots located near Lungotevere degli Anguillara, Ponte della Musica, and Scalo de Pinedo. Among the events are "Environmental Lessons," initiatives aimed at schools of various levels to raise awareness on sustainability. These three days of environmental education, organized in collaboration with leading environmental organizations, will focus on educating students.

OCTOBER MARKETS

SHOPPING, VINTAGE

This October in Rome, visitors and locals alike can enjoy a variety of markets throughout the city that offer a diverse range of goods and experiences.

Vintage markets are popular, such as the Vintage Market on October 19-20 at San Paolo District. On that same weekend, don't miss Japan Days, a market inspired by Japanese culture, at Ippodromo Capannelle. For music lovers, the unmissable event is the Vinyl Village at Monk in Rome on October 19. For those interested in the world of handicrafts, on October 13 head to the Eco & Chic Market at Piazza dell'Immacolata in San Lorenzo with handmade, crafts, selected vintage clothing, collectibles, and more. If you're into wellness and eco-sustainability, check out the Anima Verde Market taking place at Città dell'Altra Economia every Sunday.

On October 5-6, the Ottobrata Romana a Caracalla comes to Alcazar Garden for the first time. The event will feature exhibitions, performances, artists, and the artisans from the Hippie Market. And don't forget to check out the weekly market at Alcazar Live, an artisan and handmade market with music, brunch and DJ set.

Be sure to explore these markets and discover the treasures they have to offer.
